Nathan Albert Rightmire was instantly killed, at his home on East Church Street, Friday, by a fall from a tree.

Mr. Rightmire was trimming the tree and was standing on a ladder fifteen or twenty feet from the ground. He had sawed off a large limb and as it fell, it struck the ladder, throwing Mr. Rightmire to the ground. He struck on his head and death was undoubtedly instantaneous. Hunn, located on the east side of Main street, in the Hawkins block, since removed to make room for the Barge canal. This he successfully conducted for a number of years, finally selling out and entering the employ of the Monroe County Chemical Company. When the new lift bridge over the Barge canal on Main street, was completed, he was appointed one of the operators and had filled that position ever since.

Mrs. Rightmire died August 8, 1893. Mr. Rightmire had lived in the home on East Church street for over forty years, and had been a member of the Congregational church ever since he came to Fairport. The funeral was held from his late home, Sunday afternoon, Rev. J. W. Davies officiating. Burial was at Berkshire, Monday.

Rightmire of Detroit; one daughter, Mrs. Charles Supner of Cornwall, Conn.; a brother, W. P. Rightmire of Berkshire; three sisters, Mrs. Mary Bennett; Mrs. Sarah Smith of Berkshire, and Mrs. Fred Stiles of Owego, and three grandchildren.

"Jeremiah F. Jenkins, a well-known citizen of Jefferson Township, Scotland Co., Mo., was born in Bullitt County, Ky., November 11, 1811, and is the son of William N. and Priscilla B. (Hoskins) Jenkins. The father was born in Maryland, and followed the occupations of a farmer and a shoemaker. He moved to Kentucky at a very early date, 1806, and was quite successful in his business transactions. He died in Bullitt County, Ky. The mother of our subject was born in the same State, in which her husband was born, and died in the same State in which his death occurred. Our subject was two years old at the death of the father, the youngest of three children, two now living. He received a fair education in the common schools of Bullitt County, Ky., and being naturally a close observer, is considered one of the well-informed men of the county. He remained on the old homestead, and worked for his mother until 1836, when he married Mrs. Margaret Conley, daughter of John Craven, and the widow of Michael Conley. This excellent woman has been the companion of our subject for over fifty years, and their married life has been blessed by the birth of nine children--five sons and four daughters. One son is deceased. After marriage our subject purchased land in Bullitt County, Ky., and lived there about eleven years, when he moved to Scotland County, Mo., near Etna, in the year 1861, again purchased land near Memphis, Jefferson Township in 1863, and there he has since remained. He started in life poor, but evinced a strong determination to succeed, which he was successful. He now owns 240 acres of some of the best land in Scotland County. Our subject is a decided Democrat, is a member of the I.O.O.F., and he and wife are members of the Old School Presbyterian Church."
