

Kapaun High Students See Washington

A group of senior students from Chaplain Kapaun Memorial High School, who have been studying a course in government, recently made a trip to Washington, D.C., by bus.

As guests of Georgetown University, they were housed at the school dormitory during their stay.

Those making the trip were Keith Motley, Gary Smith, Henry Welch, Bob Munden, Don Tucker, Charles J. Haen, John Sattgast, Dick Eggleston, John E. Elting, Donald Adams, Kenneth Hein, Gary Grove, Ronald Dreiling, Edward Wiesen, Tom Jerrick, Jim O'Donnell, Stan Orth, Daniel Ast;

Philip Michler, Dave Remmert, Michael Harris, Chuck Harren, Michael Egan, Vic Bonat, Douglas Fairbanks, Timothy Hurley, Joe Crawley, Roscoe Little, Philip Benway, Gerald Peay, Tom Crissman, Mike Black, Larry Shellenberger, Jerry Aaron, Paul Swope, John Hutchinson, John Koester, Anthony F. Rossitto Jr., and Mike Quinn, all of Wichita, and Tim Melcher of Viola, Kan.

ON CAPITOL STEPS—Chaplain Kapaun Memorial High School seniors who recently toured the nation's capitol, are shown here on the steps of the Capitol Building. Standing between Richard Spillane and Harold Bradley of the Society of Jesus is Kansas Sen. Andrew F. Schoepel.